Amateur: Total LTE $100K or over

Amateur Intermediate: Total LTE $25,001-$99,999

Amateur Limit: Total LTE $0-$25,000

Rider Eligibility: Amateur Classes

A rider may compete in any division he/she qualifies for as determined by the definition of an Amateur rider in the NCHA Rule Book. The levels within each division are based on rider total lifetime earnings at the beginning of the NCHA point year. There is NO distinction between Weekend and Limit Aged earnings. All earnings (i.e. senior, area work off, etc.) are included in a rider Total Lifetime Earnings.

Revolving Door: If a rider is NOT in the top 100 money earning riders for the previous 2 point years in ANY division, they may drop down into the intermediate.

Senior Exception: Once a rider turns 60, the rider may drop down into the Intermediate class regardless of earnings. (Amateur Classes)

Earning Cap: Once an Amateur has won $250K in Non-Pro weekend & LAE earnings, they MUST declare Amateur or Non-Pro. Once a Non-Pro has won $250K in Open LAE & Weekend money, they MUST declare Open or Non-Pro division. See 2023 rulebook for additional information.

All levels within a class will run concurrently. A horse may walk to the herd two times in a class.

$35,000 Non-Pro (any-age horse) NCHA approved. . Ef$125+Cc $250, OC $75) (fresh cattle) Contestant must meet NCHA Non Pro rules.
